

XSol a kiwi software success story

Leaders in Business Mapping and Process Automation

We help organizations, both in New Zealand and internationally, harness their business knowledge and transform it into applications that improve the way they do business. With truly leading-edge and innovative business mapping & process automation technologies, our customers are now enjoying the benefits of this advanced approach of automating their businesses.

XSol's sales success, combined with a pipeline of product developments, has resulted in these exciting new roles being created. Each of these roles will appeal to those talented people who want to make a real difference, who offer unlimited potential, and strive for excellence in their careers.

Senior Developers (x2).. strong software engineering skills, primarily in Microsoft technologies covering TSQL, Delphi & SQL, combined with project and team leadership experience.

Developers (x2).. we look for talent, a passion for Microsoft-based software development, plus desire to be the best.

QA Team Leader.. take ownership of QA throughout the company.

QA Technician.. take your QA & testing pedigree to the next stage.

Service Delivery.. take ownership of customer relationships, the help desk environment and service levels.

For more information, or to apply for any of these new roles call Steve Green on 09-357-5090 or e-mail your CV to careers@xsol.com

XSol - helping organizations improve their productivity by electronically connecting people and business activity in seamless end-to-end processes, cutting the time it takes to complete business transactions, and ensuring consistency of outcome. XSol provides a platform for incremental change and continuous improvement

